

VRS is wonderful to use. I want to see it become an important real-time communication service. Not only it benefits me, it also benefits the consumers of the Independent Living Program to achieve independence by making the calls on their own.